Novel New Years Greeting Sent Out By T. & G. Railroad

A New Year's greeting of a pleasing trend has been sent out by Traffic Manager W. D. Forster of the Tonopah & Goldfield railroad to the merchants and business men of Tonopah. The greeting is well worth reproducing and is given in full as follows:

Another cycle of the wheel of time, and 1912 is a milestone passed. Tonopah's 1912 activity is worthy of record in a lofty niche in mining history, slaughtering all precedents. She "came back" and showed a strength in her accumulated age not visible even in her youth. Her prosperity is marked to a degree not heretofore felt, and with much pleasure and deep gratitude we acknowledge our participation in that prosperity.

To the combined interests of Tonopah, mining and commercial, we express our thanks for most liberal patronage during the past year. Our records show a healthful business transacted. You, Mr. Merchant, and you, Mr. Miner, with ourselves share in this mercantile activity. Our interests being mutual—discovery and development of new mines, erection of new mills, enlarged and increased business establishments, and a tone of optimism—the heir apparent to success.

You have done your part by a liberal patronage to the Tonopah & Goldfield railroad; which, let me assure you, is greatly appreciated. We have tried to do our part through fair and equitable treatment, through courtesy and strict attention to business, conserving our joint interests.

Wishing you continued prosperity during the New Year, we remain, yours very truly, W. D. Forster, traffic manager.

ASSORTMENT OF NEW BOOKS AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

FICTION, SCIENTIFIC AND HISTORICAL NOVELS ARE ADDED TO SHELVES

The following books have recently been added to the circulation of the public library. The book committee catered especially to the needs of young people, both for pleasure and instruction. During the vacation school children will find time to read the delightful books of adventure and romance, and in their work they will find much assistance from the Book of Knowledge, or children's encyclopedia; a set of 20 volumes, covering scientific, historical and literary subjects, written in a clear, simple style, that makes them interesting and easily understood by young people.

The list of new books also includes some publications in social and political topics that present problems now uppermost in men's minds. The book committee selects impartially books presenting both sides of social and political questions, written by leaders of national reputation. It would be well to keep this list for future reference. The following books can be found on application:

"Knocking the Neighbors," Ade; "The Promised Land," Aulin; "Charge It," Bacheller; "Sky Island," Baum; "The Net," Rex Beach; "Roger Paulding," Beach; "Corporal Cameron," Connor; "Riders of the Purple Sage," Grey; "Miss 318 and Mr. 37," Hughes; "Mary Ware's Promised Land," Johnston; "Street Called Straight," King; "Miss Philura's Wedding Gown," Kingsley; "A Wanderer in Florence," Lucas; "Song of the Cardinal," Porter; "Girl of the L'iberlost," Porter; "Neighbors Unknown," Roberts; "Changing America," Ross; "Socialism and Character," Scudder; "Social Adjustment," Nearing.

Advice to Those Who Have Lung Trouble

Tuberculosis is said to be curable by simply living in the open air and taking an abundance of fresh eggs and milk. Do all you possibly can to add to strength and increase weight; eat wholesome, nourishing food, and breathe the cleanest and purest air, and then, if health and strength do not return, add the tonic and beneficial effects of Eckman's Alternative. Read what it did in this case:
